How we treat specific items

- Computers and cellphones: The reasonable costs to repair or replace your computer or cellphone, limited to:
 - Specified items up to the amount shown on your certificate per item
 - Unspecified items up to $5,000 per item
 Your cell phone and home computers are limited to their present-day value if they are more than three years old
- Sports, recreational equipment and bicycles: The reasonable costs to repair or replace the item, limited to:
 - Specified items up to the amount shown on your certificate per item
 - Unspecified items up to $5,000 per item
- Hearing aids, prescription sunglasses, glasses and dentures: The reasonable costs to repair or replace the item, limited to:
 - Specified items up to the amount shown on your certificate per item
 - Unspecified items up to $5,000 per item
 One pair of hearing aids or dentures counts as one item under the policy
- Valuable items: Watches, jewellery, gold or silver articles, fur, works of art, coin, card or stamp collections, fragile items and camera/s or video camera/s
 The reasonable costs to repair or replace the item, limited to:
 - Specified items up to the amount shown on your certificate per item
 - Unspecified items up to $5,000 per item
- Pairs and sets: if we can't repair or replace the damaged part of a pair or set, we will replace the entire set (excluding collections)

What we will pay

What we will pay depends on the cover shown on your certificate and the item being claimed upon.
 The two levels of cover available:

- Nominated Replacement Value: the reasonable cost to repair your household contents to the same condition they were in as new. If they cannot be repaired, replace them up to the amount shown on the certificate
- Present Day Value: the lesser of either the reasonable cost to repair your household contents to the same condition they were before the loss, or their present-day value, up to the amount shown on the certificate

The FMG difference

FMG has its roots firmly planted in rural New Zealand, which is why you'll find that we're different when it comes to insurance. We were started in 1905 by farmers for farmers and growers, and today we're still 100% New Zealand owned by our rural clients.
